

AUDITS... AND THE ALTERNATIVES – GETTING WHAT YOU WANT

There are now a range of alternatives to audit and it is important to know which will best meet the needs of your organisation. Craig Fisher will present the alternatives and discuss them. Craig will present two seminars, The first from 10.00am to 12.00noon primarily for accountants and the other from 1.00pm to 3.00pm primarily for community organisations. Lunch will be available between 12noon and 1.00pm

The seminars will be held on Tuesday 18th March 2008 at the Racecourse Function Centre

The cost for the seminar is $10.00 to be paid with registration.

Craig Fisher is an experienced, passionate and pragmatic presenter of local and national presentations on topics such as auditing, accounting updates, fraud prevention, governance matters and practice management. With a special interest in the not-for-profit sector, he co-presented Charities Update seminars for accountants nationwide in 2006 and 2007. He has acted for a large number of charities and not-for-profit organisations in his capacity as an audit partner in Hayes Knight Audit, and is a regular technical author helping translate accounting and auditing issues into accessible information for users. Craig also chairs the Institute's Professional Standards Board which is responsible for all professional and ethical standards developed by the Institute other than the financial reporting standards.

Craig is passionate about ensuring organisations understand and get the appropriate services that best suit their needs.
